

THE CHRISTMAS STORE

A store that is radiant with the joy and the spirit of Christmas time.

Santa Claus has been to the Variety Store and left a lot of his things for all of the good little boys and girls.

Grown-ups will find gifts suitable for each one and the other one.

Christmas toyland is here. Let the kiddies write a letter to Santa, telling him what they want and leave the letter in the Santa Claus Post Office box at the Variety Store.

Gifts for everybody in Glassware, China Ware, Queensware, Neck Ties, Caps, Hoods, Scarfs, Books, Etc.

Every nook and corner of our store speaks of Christmas. An extra fine lot of Xmas trees and decorations on hand.

Our store is fairly humming with the spirit of Christmas. Children and grown-ups, too, seem to be enjoying every minute of our Christmas store. We have tried to select the most items for the most people at the most attractive prices.

Join the crowds that are daily visiting our store, you will be sure to be pleased with the way we have prepared to serve you.

Come early! Bring the Children! This is their Store.

THE VARIETY STORE, OREGON, MISSOURI

Personal and Otherwise

—One span of bridge has been set across the Nodaway, near Nodaway station, by Andrew county. Holt county will contribute $3,000 to aid in completing the bridge and help to make some of the road. The bridge is entirely in Andrew county.

—The county board of health was in session, Friday of last week, and ordered a quarantine established on the family of Robert Edwards, of the Triumph district, on account of small-pox.

—Misses Pearl Devorss and Eva Jessup, of St. Joseph, spent the Thanksgiving season as the guests of Mrs. Andy Tochterman. Just you ask them what kind of a time they had.

—That clever Oregon bunch which is over at Lincoln, Neb., attending school, came home for a Thanksgiving feast and they found it—Blanche Hodgins, Esther Kelley, Ruth and Alice Meyer, and Mildred King.

—Savannah people are going crazy over the prospects of oil being discovered near that city, following a report of the state geologist. Steps are being taken to form a company to sink wells, etc.

—George Ennis, of Rock Port, was here for a few days this week visiting his relatives. He was on his way home from Moberly, where he had been visiting his daughter. He is a veteran of the Civil War, serving in the First Nebraska Infantry.

—Harry Hitz and wife visited with relatives in Chicago, Ill., over Thanksgiving.

—Squaw winter came along with Thanksgiving Day, and stayed with us until this week, giving us a total of six inches of snow and a precipitation of 1.15 inches, and it is still here, with the mercury four above Sunday morning, Nov. 30, the coldest yet this season. We now consider that this is really not squaw winter, but a pretty good start for regular brave winter in Indian parlance. Wednesday morning of this week, Dec. 3, the mercury registered six degrees below zero.

—Henry Dankers is now with the Moore Grocery company, and he will prove a very affable and agreeable clerk.

—We are indeed sorry to learn of the death of Arch Fleener, which occurred at his home in Mound City, on Monday of last week, Nov. 24, 1918. He was about 66 years of age, and is survived by his wife and five children.

—Donald Emerson, one of the sterling young men of the Benton district, took Miss Agnes Miles as his bride at the Evangelical parsonage in Mound City, on Monday of last week, Nov. 24. After a short bridal trip they will be at home on the Emerson farm in the Benton district. Sincere congratulations.

—Dr. W. S. Wood spent a day here, Wednesday last, with his wife, then went on to Kansas City, joining his father, Dr. Wood, editor of the Elmo Register who went along with his boy to the hustling city at the mouth of the Kaw.

—Our sympathy goes out to the widow and parents of Harvey J. Heits, of Corning, who died at his home on one of the Roselius farms, near Corning, on Tuesday Nov. 18, aged 38 years. He is survived by the widow, two sons and a daughter, parents and many relatives and friends.

—Claude Williams and family, we understand, will return to Mound City. He has been residing in Maryville the past year, engaged as a field agent for a medicine company. We are glad to know that he will again become a resident of Old Holt.

—The Sentinel sympathizes with R. C. Harvey, of the Mound City News-Jeffersonian, by reason of the death of his father, George A. Harvey, which occurred at his home in St. Joseph, on Thursday last, Nov. 27. The deceased for many years was a resident of Mound City.

—The Willis-Lucas Lumber company lost their stock of lumber at DeKalb, Thursday last, Nov. 27. The loss is estimated at $25,000. They have a branch yard at Craig, managed by C. L. Willis.

—Enough bananas could be bought for five cents to give three boys indigestion, but that was long ago.

—Twenty Women Wanted:—C. W. King wants twenty women at his Big Closing-Out Sale. If you have a No. 2, 3, 3½ or 4 size foot, please bring them with you and he will fit them into a shoe that is the best shoe bargain you have ever seen or will see again for some time to come. Come in now. NOW is the time. Don't put it off, and then say, "Well, I wish I had."

—Just as life seemed the sweetest for Opal Grace Murray, a student of the Maitland high school, the boatman came and took this beautiful sweet character over on the other side of life's river. She was a Senior, and had she been spared would have graduated this year. Her sweet spirit took its flight from the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Kneale, November 22, 1919. She was born in Maitland April 3, 1903.

—List your farms with A. W. Cotten for results.

—John S. Christian and wife, of Prosser, Wash., have been here on a visit to former Holt county friends. John used to be one of Holt's A1 teachers. He is now raising fruit. They were on their way to Ohio for a visit with his father.

—Lost—A bill fold, between Forest City and Wm. Markt's farm. Finder please return to Russell Markt or leave at this office.

—We are informed that Mr. William Keller, of near Maitland has purchased the Ora Miller farm of 80 acres, near Maitland, for which he paid $20,000, and which he gave to his daughter, Miss Maude Rowlette as a little token of love and esteem.

—If you have no appetite for your meals, something is wrong in your digestive organs. Take a dose or two of Rickley's Ash Bitters, the medicine for men. It cleanses the stomach, liver and bowels, creates appetite, vigor and cheerfulness. Price $1.25 per bottle. Henninger Drug Co., Special Agents.

—Dr. F. E. Hogan reports the arrival of a fine girl baby at the home of Oscar Isaacson and wife, north of Forest City, Thursday, Nov. 27, 1919, Thanksgiving Day. They certainly had occasion to be thankful.

—If you want to sell your farm come in and list it with us. We sell them.

BRIDGEMAN & FRYE.

—Ask Will Schulte, of the Citizens' Bank, how that spiritual friend of his is getting along? Or, Mrs. Jessie Jones may give you the information.

—Dr. F. E. Markland, of St. Joseph, gave thanks in Oregon, Thanksgiving day.

Young Bulls For Sale. Red Polled Stock, all pedigreed and registered.

C. A. ZACHMAN, Oregon, Mo.

—The wolf hunt engaged in by a number of our nimrods, Thanksgiving day, resulted in not even a glimpse of a wolf, and the total result in rabbits did not require much figuring.

—The foot ball game for the state championship, held at Cameron, Thanksgiving day, between the Missouri Wesleyan and William Jewell colleges, resulted in a score of 7 to 0 in favor of the Missouri Wesleyans. Oakley Morris and Byron Hudgins, from here, were in attendance.

—If you want to buy a farm see us. We have a good list of them for sale. BRIDGEMAN & FRYE.

—Presley Watson, of Lake Sheridan, Colo., who has been here for several weeks, visiting his father, Jonas Watson, and other relatives, and assisting his father with his public sale, left Thanksgiving day for Sheridan Lake, and from there will go with his uncle, Joe W. Herman, wife and family to Delta, Colo., where they expect to make their future home.

—Mrs. Sarah Hershner, accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. J. W. Meyer and her little daughter, have returned from a few days' visit with her daughter, Mr. Chas. Simpson and wife, and son, Dr. Fred Hershner and wife of Yates Center, Kansas.

—W. C. Proud, M. D., Eye, Ear, Throat and Nose Specialist. Office, Physicians and Surgeons' Building, 7th and Francis Sts., St. Joseph, Mo.

—Mr. Fred Philbrick came up from St. Joseph, Thanksgiving day, returning in the evening with his wife and children where they expect to make their future home. May health and prosperity always be theirs.

—Miss Myrtle Huetsen was at home with her parents in Adams, Neb., over Thanksgiving.

—G. R. McIntyre, formerly of Oregon and Maitland, but more recently of Stratford, Texas, with his wife have removed, and are now residents of Kansas City.

—Attorney Frank Petree is now the proud possessor of a handsomely mounted black eagle, killed by his son, Leo, with a rifle, near Santa Rosa, New Mexico, where Leo is now located. The spread of wings are 7 feet 3 inches from tip to tip, and it is certainly a fine specimen. It can be seen at Mr. Petree's law office.

—Thomas Reynolds, of Cheyenne Wells, Colo., where he is a contractor and builder, has returned after a few days' visit with his wife and children.

—In the J. L. Weaver sale bills for his public sale, to be held six miles east of Oregon, Tuesday, Dec. 9, beginning at 10 o'clock a. m., sharp, by some omission, the fact that the ladies of the Richville M. E. church, would serve lunch was omitted. Remember this.

—F. L. Zeller left Sunday last for Bearden, Ark., to visit with his son, George, and to look after his real estate interests. He will be absent several weeks.

—One Thoroughbred Guernsey Bull calf, grandson of Dolly Dimple, who held world's record for butter fat. Priced to sell cheap. Might sell one or two High-Grade Guernsey Heifers. I. S. STULL, Forbes, Mo.

—Paul Bragg and George McIntyre were home from the State University for the Thanksgiving period with their relatives.

—Mrs. Mary Hammond, of Los Angeles, California, is visiting here, the guest of her nephews, Frank L. and Corwin Zeller and their families. This is the first time that Frank has seen his aunt in 38 years.

—We acknowledge a pleasant call from C. A. Miller, Thursday of last week. His home is in St. Joseph, but he is traveling for the Loose-Wiles Biscuit Co., of Kansas City. He married a daughter of our former esteemed and elderly citizens, D. P. Smallwood and wife, Mr. Smallwood now being dead, and his wife, who is paralyzed, makes her home with her daughter and husband, Mr. Miller and wife, of St. Joseph.

—T. A. Long, Veterinarian.

—We are sorry to learn that our fellow citizen, A. H. Bailey is on the sick list. We hope for his early recovery.

—Mrs. Minnie Adolph has returned from a visit with friends in St. Joseph.

—Little Miss Adaline Kathryn Smith arrived at the home of her parents in Hinsdale, Illinois, November 10, 1919, and all are rejoicing, but none more so than Grandmother Mrs. Blanche Howell-Clark. It does not seem possible that little Don Smith, whom we all knew, loved and respected in Oregon, only a short time ago, is now "daddy." Congratulations, ladies.
